

Directions:

1. Each family member places their unique mark next to 3-5 words that best describes what is most special about your family.
2. Share what each sees as the unique gifts your family has been blessed with and write these inside the doorway.
3. Use these key words and the starter sentences on the right to create your own family mission.
4. Enter your mission on the computer and insert your family picture with it.
5. Print it out and frame your Family Mission statement!
